

Intro

Tormentor

"When the sacred oath is broken and the lie is spoken out loud when the angel is possessed and the virgin has stolen her pride.
When the flame of love and pureness have turned to bestial lust when the walls of gold in Heaven close in and turned to dust When the wind of Mayhem whispers through the vale of tears and death when the golden river is empty and the sadist tear the angel flesh When the son of the damned strides the earth and the rite of darkness is done when the revelation of Doom comes closer and the battle just begun When the beauty is born for burning and the total destruction draws near when the disciple under the sign of Black Mark gathers and the reap of Evil is here Then the clouds of death shall gather then the night skyhall always burn then the ancient prediction comes true and the bells of Fate chime The RETURN....."
