

Recipe Ferrum!

Tormentor

Colosseum
War of life
In a fratricidal fight

On either side
The friends of mine
All will have to be slain

I know that
I can't do it
My whole body is trembling

I don't know
If I should fight
Or if I should give up

How could this be
So faint and cowardly
Not worthy of praise

Since the beginning
For the living ones
Death and birth are unavoidable

Let's go fight!
Fight for fighting!
For the victory of the heroes...

Our ancestors the holy ones
All did the same.

Recipe Ferrum...

How can I
Trust in God
The reality so cruel,

You can kill
Only the body
Not the spiritual soul,

Who is God
Incomprehensible
Show yourself to me!

He offers me to be the chosen one
He gave me mighty eye...

Recipe Ferrum...

Wondrous brilliant unlimitied all expanding,
If thousands of suns were to rise in the sky,
Time I am, the great destroyer of the worlds,
All soldiers here on both sides will be slain...

Oh master of masters
The world is joyfull

All is rightfully done

I was demented
By disbelief
But now I understand!

Life and death
Are the same
I will think of you!

I will do everything,
Please, show me the way!
