Torture Garden

Oily hands wag a finger
In a hypocrist tirade
Greasy palms rubbed in delight
As bombs light an Arabian night
Diamonds are Fuhrer's best friend
They sparkle in his earrings
Crocodile tears join to flood
Gallons of spilled African blood
Cloaked by the blood spattered banner
Stamping feet in Union Jack-boots
Goose-step bravely on every face
War is peace with brutal mace
Poisonous seeds of bad apples

Cannot be allowed to pollute
So sure is peachy to torture and shoot
Rebels for United Fruit
Cloaked by the blood spattered banner
Stamping feet in Union Jack-boots
Goose-step bravely on every face
War is peace with brutal mace
Globetrotting giants rape and pillage
Smash and grab in each village
Sugary fascists are still sour
Some of the image but all of the power
On loyalty the victims choke
As politicians rot the vote
Finger-length maggots chew on remains
And the world is a rotisserie of pain
