

The Beast Within

Torture Squad

Look inside the mirror
And tell me what you see
A beast within screaming
Into your mind, it wants to get free
You're locked in your addictions
Bad thoughts leave you ill
Schizophrenia is ruling
And turning your life unreal

Hear...voices are calling you
Now...you're really under my spell

Uncontrollable wish to surrender
To this strange purple haze
Desire for loss of control
Hallucinations open the gates
You're deaf to my advice
A bad person is possessing you
Under that confusing mind
You hit the roof

Hear...voices are calling you
Now...you're really under my spell
Feel...chaos makes you insane
Try...to stop your confused inner self!
Self!

Feeling my heart exploding in critical palpitations
Like sand in the hourglass my life is draining
To the end

Under the effects of addiction, sanity is gone
Please...
For your security I'm warning you
Leave me alone!
Alone!
