

Guilty

Toše Proeski

I guess it's just another night
Another fight
That all familiar scene

You looking
At your watch again
Saying what's the time
And where the hell you've been

Even on the other side
Wondering why I even tried it all
Looking to my heart again
With your x ray eyes
Tell me what're you trying to see
Can't stand the way you look at me

I put my hands up
I put my hands up
I guess I'm guilty
Hands up
I must return whatever you accused me of
I stand up to hear your judgement
It's always guilty
But I'm gonna make a break
Before you turn the key

Baby my life would be easier
Getting out of here
And trying to make it right

There's no matter what I do
I can't get through
I wanna just get back
You forget the liveness
We just exist as nothing left inside
Should I tell you what you wanna hear
And kill it with this life
Show you what you wanna see
It seems to be that you need me

To put my hands up
I put my hands up
I guess I'm guilty
Hands up
I must return whatever you accused me of
I stand up to hear your judgement
It's always guilty
But I'm gonna make a break

And we'll become this strangers
I don't even recognise us
Cause nothing's there to justified you
Feel it the way you do
But I guess all I can do is to

Put my hands up

Put my hands up
I guess I'm guilty
Hands up
I must return whatever you accused me of
I stand up to hear your judgement
It's always guilty girl
But I'm gonna make a break

I put my hands up
I guess I'm guilty
Hands up
It's always guilty
Girl I'm gonna make a break

I guess it's just another night
Another fight
That all familiar scene
