Lives Are Squandered

Total Chaos

As the government starts another war Drafts the unwanted and the poor To keep their company up at a high Our lives are squandered We're gonna die

Throw down your weapons And fight against the war And give the money To help homeless and poor