

The most beautiful

Total

When my eyes met your eyes,
I knew from that day,
I wanted you everyday.
And baby tonight would be so right,
For me and you.

You're so beautiful,
All my life I stood by.
Just standing all alone,
Without no-one to call my own.
You came by and changed my life,
Now I'm dancing,
'Cause you gave me your heart to call my own.

What you are to me,
Is everything I need,
As far as I can see,
The most beautiful.
(2x)

Finally you're starting to touch me,
And you made it right.
My body's starting to go into an overdrive,
You got me high.

You're so beautiful,
All my life I stood by.
Just standing all alone,
Without no-one to call my own.
You came by and changed my life,
Now I'm dancing,
'Cause you gave me your heart to call my own.

What you are to me,
Is everything I need,
As far as I can see,
The most beautiful.

You are beautiful,
Yes you are beautiful.
