

Dripping Melancholy

Totalselfhatred

Strength through Pain!

Suffer with pride
All by myself
All the time

I can barely breathe
At these flooding streets
I stand still in the raging stream
Reaching from misery

All the time the burden grows
Drop a tear to was the pain away

It's my soul, a drop of blood
A dead leaf, crushed on the ground
Only a broken mirror reflecting my pain
The drop of blood washed away by rain

...Unbound
