

Enlightment

Totalselfhatred

Here I scream in agony, in loneliness and pain
The world around forsaken me - my life has gone insane
Here I scream in misery, frustration all around
I can't heal all the wounds they sliced - just can be myself

I cannot change your destiny, can only help you think
As far as my horizons lead - your thoughts will be more deep
Hope inside is torturing me - keeps painfully alive
A light inside, a knowledge deep, that shines so bright!

Tartu käteeni ja livu kanssani autuuteen - avaa silmäsi uuteen kirikkauteen
Kyyneleet valuvat silmistä luomettomista,
Jotka valaistumisen tulet ovat siunanneet... siunanneet...
