Orphan

You're never alone in the world You're never alone in the world You believe in each and everyone of us You're never alone in the world

I was born in the lost and found Often raised in the underground Then one day I opened up my eyes Looked around and I realised

No mother No father No sister And no brother So I cry out To the heavens Could this be all there really is then someone said

You're never alone in the world You're never alone in the world baby You believe in each and everyone of us You're never alone in the world baby

Someone said we were family Can that be with all this poverty Time to reach out and make a start Hold each others hands and lift each others hearts

If you're thirsty drink the water from my hand If you're hungry take my bread I'll understand If you're lonely you can always share my bed Could this be all there really is then someone said

You're never alone in the world You're never alone in the world baby No you're never alone You believe in each and everyone of us No You're never alone in the world baby

If you're thirsty drink the water from my hand If you're hungry take my bread I'll understand If you're lonely you can always share my bed Could this be all there really is then someone's dead

You're never alone in the world You're never alone in the world baby Never alone You believe in each and everyone of us You believe You're never alone in the world baby

If you're thirsty drink the water from my hand If you're hungry take my bread I'll understand You're never alone in the, you're never alone in the Could this be all there really is then someone said Tištěno z www.txp.cz Sponzor: www.srovnavac.cz - šetříme na pojištění!
