

Crutch

Touché Amoré

you said I'm always on the go how nice of you to notice a toast to all those broken homes everyone i know is a fortress i kiss ellipsis a fork in all my one way roads i just sit to see what happens but apathy is easy for me so i'll accept this challenge i don't know how to get myself up your pressure is bending my crutch if this thing breaks, it's the end of us both but i like the sound of that
