

Open up the door that closes off your mind
Lift up the astral veil you know you are so blind
Shattering perception

You can't trust your eyes
Melting shapes and blurry vision
Acid Fuzz consumes
Becomes your new religion
Shattering perception

Drowning in infinity
But never knowing why
On a plane of consciousness
The acid gets you high...

Dose me

When a person feels, society reels
There's no holding back
Morality is limitation
You are what I was

You've made the choice
Now choose your path.
