

Burn

Toxic Holocaust

Fire power. 1000 watts. Ready to explode
Melting from the sound. The devil's rock 'n' roll
Thrashing back. Heart attack. A crushing hammer strikes
The bells says 12 o'clock and we're raging through the night

There's fire on the stage
Burning up the night
Now you're thrashing to the noise
You know it feels alright
Lightning strikes the speakers
Unleashes a deadly sound
Let's destroy everything
And burn it to the ground

We fly and flee. Motorbelt
We fuckin' march and stand
Metal flying in the face
Evaluating back
Ears bleed, deadly screams
Power overloads
Death and destruction
The only rules we know

There's fire on the stage...

Fire power. 1000 watts. Ready to explode...
