

Man from Hell with an axe in his hand
He is known across the land
Sharpening his blade to take off your head
With one quick swing, you'll be dead
Punishment of death by decapitation
Off to Hell your soul will be taken
Your body will be lit
Placed in rotten darkness. Turned to rotten meat

Slaughtering villain comes for you
Off to your sound. Heading for you
Take my advice, don't go see
Or you'll end up pounded like me
All he wants to do is swing one blade
You better start running. You better be afraid

With one quick swing and it's off with your head
Executioner put you to death
The man holding an axe has no remorse
He'll tear you down with violent force!

He'll tear you down down with violent force
He kills for butchering. Kills for fun
Kills your soul. I hope you try to run
There is no escape. Don't even try
He's on a mission and you're gonna die!
