

Politics

Toxic Narcotic

I hate the politics, causes more problems than it'll ever fix, all this talk about unity, from a bunch of elitists and hypocrites, I hate the politics, punx fighting in their own cliques, throwing rocks and swinging sticks, can't be unity without tolerance, I hate the policy, of uniformed anarchy, if everyone was just like me, we'd lose our sense of identity, can we get this shit together, can we work it out? Or just keep talking shit, and fighting amongst ourselves, breakdown all the politics, and what have you got? Poor versus rich, which side are you on, take your pick, because all this bickering makes me sick, you're full of shit
