Politics

Toxic Narcotic

I hate the politics, causes more problems than it'll ever fix, all this talk about unity, from a bunch of elitists and hypocri tes, I hate the politics, punx fighting in their own cliques, t hrowing rocks and swinging sticks, can't be unity without toler ance, I hate the policy, of uniformed anarchy, if everyone was just like me, we'd lose our sense of identity, can we get this shit together, can we work it out? Or just keep talking shit, a nd fighting amongst ourselves, breakdown all the politics, and what have you got? Poor versus rich, which side are you on, tak e your pick, because all this bickering makes me sick, you're f ull of shit
