

Tell Me Why

Toxique

Our love was simple
Full of emotions
We had some fights but
We were filled with devotion.
No fucking problem
Could stand in our way
When something happened
We solved it our way

Tell me why, tell me why, tell me why
Does it hurt so much when you break my heart.
Tell me why, tell me why, tell me why
Does it hurt so much when you break my heart
Tell me why did you break my heart
Tell me what pretty bitch will take my spot
Tell me why, tell me why

Our love was special
At least you've said it
Was this just game cause
I may've misread it
How did you end up with
One of my best friends
Don't you remember
I was your girl then?

Tell me why, tell me why, tell me why
Does it hurt so much when you break my heart.
Tell me why, tell me why, tell me why
Does it hurt so much when you break my heart
Tell me why did you break my heart
Tell me what pretty bitch will take my spot
Tell me why, tell me why

My love was simple
You were my hero
Now you come begging me but
I need no cheater
Do you think you can
Live life without me
I hope it hurts you
The way it does me

Tell me why, tell me why, tell me why
Does it hurt so much when you break my heart.
Tell me why, tell me why, tell me why
Does it hurt so much when you break my heart
Tell me why did you break my heart
Tell me what pretty bitch will take my spot
Tell me why, tell me why
