

I Explode

Toyah

(Words Willcox / Music Bogen)
Skimming the surface of a sleep
The rain falls hard from the heavens deep
Shatters my hopes, shatters my dreams
Shatters my windows into smithereens
And the feeling gets too hard to hold
I explode
I explode
I explode...
Adrenalin rush
It's all too much
I'm pouring over the threshold
I was warned and I was told
I explode
I explode
I explode...
I was warned
I was told
I explode
I explode
I explode...
Elusive stranger
Come on, lay it on the line
Alone in my madness
I'm alone for all time
I'm alone for all time
I explode...
Shatter my hopes
Shatter my dreams
Close the door
Shatter my windows into smithereens yeah
I explode...
