

Justice For None

Tracedawn

Hold on to whatever you can
There will be blood to pay
What others build others destroy
For a greater good

Mindless masses full of fear
Controlled by those who dare

Broken limbs broken bones
Violence is what they know
Anger and grief grief and hate
And so it goes

Mindless masses full of fear
Controlled by those who dare

Blue eyed lambs forever bound
To the will of the one

Justice for all! justice for none
Those who know love will soon forget all they know
