

18 Heads Roll By

Tracy Bonham

Tell me, I'm the only one
You would never
Feeling such a losing game
You would never

Everything that matters
Only one that matters

Heaven, help the one you love
You would never
Feeling such a losing game
You would never

Everything that matters
Only one that matters

18 heads roll by, 18 heads roll by
18 heads roll by and not one of them mine

I could live a long, long time
Stay forever
Would you think I'd end it now
You would never

Everything that matters
Only one that matters

So I bought a frame in hand
I would never
Feeling such a losing game
I would never

Everything that matters
Only one that matters

18 heads roll by, 18 heads roll by
18 heads roll by, and not one of them mine
