I Am Yours

Tracy Chapman

When all my hopes and dreams Have been betrayed I stand before you My hands are empty

I am yours If you are mine

When I fall and stumble Flat on my face When I'm shamed and humbled In disgrace

I am yours If you are mine

When voices call me To question my faith When misperception Taints my love with hate

I am yours If you are mine

When time decides It won't stop for me When the hawks and vultures Are circling

I am yours If you are mine
