1st Verse

This feeling gets me, gets me down
Everytime I think I see your face standing out in a crowd,
I lose all emotion, broken down,
Now I'm standing on the edge,
Fear I'm falling back to the ground,
Time won't stand still long enough,
To see if it's a face I've ever really seen before,

PRE-CHORUS

Feet don't fail me now, no, no,
Feet don't fail me now, no, no, no

CHORUS:

This ain't no story of broken hearts,
It's about giving up, growing up, and growing apart
We made love, we made it up, and we made it last,
Never thought you would become the pieces of my past

2ND VERSE:

Home just ain't the same anymore,
And I found it hard picking up the pieces lying on the floor,
Your smile could tear me, tear me apart,
The words before you slammed the door, really tore me apart,
Your walk away, very, very cold,
And it's hard for me to forget about you today,

PRE-CHORUS

Feet don't fail me now, no, no,
Feet don't fail me now, no, no, no

CHORUS:

This ain't no story of broken hearts,
It's about giving up, growing up, and growing apart
We made love, we made it up, and we made it last,
Never thought you would become the pieces of my past

Guitar Solo

CHORUS:

This ain't no story of broken hearts,
It's about giving up, growing up, and growing apart
We made love, we made it up, and we made it last,
Never thought you would become the pieces of my past

Pick up the pieces, Pick up the pieces, pieces of my past, Pick up the pieces
