

Too Young

Trademark

1ST VERSE:

He wasn't more than twenty-five,
When he felt he needed to take his life,
Thought he made too many decisions,
He couldn't take back now
Time will pass to a new season,
'Cuz this one's cold with nothing to believe in,
He ran out of those lullabies,
He used them up on them lonely nights

PRE-CHORUS:

He was living too fast,
Afraid nothing would last,
His face was scarred and black from looking back

CHORUS:

He never seen the waves on a Carolina shore,
He never met the one he would love a little more,
He can only see what he wants to believe,
And ain't seen nothing yet,
Because a heart's too young to ache like that

2ND VERSE

He decided it wasn't his time,
To go and give up on this life,
Those decisions never came back,
He forgot about all of that,
Says he found something to believe in,
No matter what the season

I've been living too fast,
Wish nothing would last,
My face is scarred and black from looking back

CHORUS:

And now I've rode the waves on a Carolina shore,
And I've found the one that would love a little more,
I believe in who is beside me,
But I ain't seen nothing yet,
'Cuz a heart's too young to ache like that

BRIDGE:

There's a war within myself,
Without the one that I adore

CHORUS:

And now I've rode the waves on a Carolina shore,
And I've found the one that would love a little more,

I believe in who is beside me,
But I ain't seen nothing yet,
'Cuz a heart's too young to ache like that
