Under My Skin

Trading Yesterday

Shadow days come to haunt me here
To wrap around me
Dark and cold to hide the sunlight from my eyes

I can not see beyond these clouds surrounding I will not forget that this is not the end

Under my skin
Under these scars
Take me again
Tear me apart
Cause I wanna see
Everything you are
Til all that's left
Is not myself

This is life every second here Gripping tighter Empty praise to all the things I fear inside

But I know that you will rise up from these ashes Tomorrow will be the light that guides me

Under my skin
Under these scars
Take me again
Tear me apart
Cause I wanna see
Everything you are
Til all that's left
Is not myself

Take away everything
Burn away all of me
As I break I believe
You will come to rescue

Under my skin
Under these scars
Take me again
Tear me apart
Cause I wanna see
Everything you are
Til all that's left
Is not myself

Under my skin
Under these scars
Take me again
Tear me apart
Cause I wanna see
Everything you are
Til all that's left
Is not myself

Take away everything Burn away all of me As I break I believe You will come to rescue

You will come to rescue...
