

Cold Hand of Retribution

Trail of Tears

The time has come to realise
The time has come to face it

Into the void
You tremble as you fall
Into the void
You face it

Still you fear me for purest reasons
Still you tremble 'cause vengeance still remains my call
You tried to attract me to the void
And faced you failure
Still breeding lies as you fall
Now I'm the one who is standing tall

The time has come to experience
The time has come to face it

Realise
Face it

I'll crush your visions with arrogant ease
I'll demonstrate hatred until your dreams begin to cease
To think you could tear me from my throne
Was to seal your doom
Weak you are standing cold
In fear as all my wrath unfolds

The time has come to realise
The time has come to face it

Into the void
You tremble as you fall
Into the void
You face it
