

Dead End Gaze

Trail of Tears

Trapped inside a swollen haze
Looking out, a dead end gaze
Meet the future, cold and bleak
Your own actions determine directions

(Chorus:)

Sealed with exposed words in a truthful design
Enter the image of an open mind
In a time for destinations
An emotional ride
Reborn construction built by honor and pride

Time to pass the tension on
Take back my life before I'm gone
Cease the future, warm and bright
My own actions determine directions

(Chorus:)

Sealed with exposed words in a truthful design
Enter the image of an open mind
In a time for destinations
An emotional ride
Reborn construction built by honor and pride
