

Enigma of the Absolute

Trail of Tears

My shadow follows me everywhere I go Please take it away, `cause I wanna go Alone...

Bring forth the agony of your inner thoughts

Far out in the forest lies a secret that I hid when I was little Wonder if it's still out there?
The past, I try to forget and nearly forgotten

Behold, as they are stepping towards us
The saint, and the sinful father Can't he reject the temptation of life, as he stops and speaks to me
"The temptation of life makes sense to me".

His mouth dripping with insanity
Stupendous scars of agony?
Heal these scars, set in time to heal for me
Stupendous scars of agony?

He tried to caress the lost ones, forever encaged...

Read my life as I read yours
A second chance for everyone?
Heal these scars, set in time to heal for me

Tell me I was wrong, and I will relive it.
