

Eradicate

Trail of Tears

Fight me now once again
In every single blood way
Don't you underrate the wisdom
I have exaggerate your Words in shame

Give me all, your everything
Bet your soul I'll see your Call, prepare to fall

Summon all the strength and Aim it straight to the core
Terminate the hateful ones
And settle the score

Fight me now once again, with
All your pride and magnificence feel the strength that I possess
Activated by your arrogance
Draw the line

Consider me your worst enemy
This breaking point is mine
To defeat, prepare to fall
Prepare to fall!
