

Orroro

Trail of Tears

Like Orroro in the garden
She came to me to set my burden free
Cold I lay in the autumn night
Like a phoenix flying high she led my way
On wings that shine like a thousand stars
Orroro's song, so sweet so long
Soft as velvet, the softest skin
A touch of truth, that death will win
Like Orroro in the garden
She came to me to set my burden free
On wings that shine like a thousand stars
My life pro-longs in Orroro's song
