

Take Aim. Reclaim. Prevail

Trail of Tears

Filthy tongues and angry souls
clench their fists in contempt Trying hard do stay afloat in a well of bitterness

All this pitiful desperation makes me but victorious, glorious While their lungs got filled my heart beat still and I hear from deep within

Take aim. Reclaim. Prevail.

(Chorus:)

Step back and face the loss
Unarmed and left behind those enemy lines
Strip down to the core
So haunted by the vicious, diabolical minds

Filthy tongues and angry souls
clench their fists in contempt
Trying hart to stay afloat in a well of bitterness

You cannot crush me anymore

(Chorus:)

Step back and face the loss
Unarmed and left behind those enemy lines
Strip down to the core
So haunted by the vicious, diabolical minds

My soul is fading and nothing is the same There are tears and suffering and lots of pain

(Chorus:)

Step back and face the loss
Unarmed and left behind those enemy lines
Strip down to the core
So haunted by the vicious, diabolical minds
