

The Desperation Corridors

Trail of Tears

Find a way to catch you while you fall
Leave the burden here, walk further on
Feel no shame or guilt
Nothing at all
Deceive the pain and I will seal the door

(Chorus:)

I will let these tears wash away
Let these tears wash away
What remains of anguish and pain

I still fall, I'm still crawling
Will you keep me from anguish and pain

I will let these tears wash away
Let these tears wash away
what is left of your shame and despair

I still fall, I'm still crawling
Will you keep me from anguish and pain

Sail your way now, leave the shore
An open sea is not your enemy
Greet the storm with an open heart
I'll guide your path if you get lost in the dark

(Chorus:)

I will let these tears wash away
Let these tears wash away
What remains of anguish and pain
