

The Feverish Alliance

Trail of Tears

Standing tall, denied the fall
All the lies repeat themselvs
Embrace the challenge, make it your vengeance
The fate is his to seal

Now he rises from the sulphur
To regain his pride, to expose the masquerade
It takes more than hatred to destroy a man
A lesson told, let the truth unfold

Come join the masquerade
Ale you the predator or are you the pray?
Come join the masquerade
Ale you serious or is it just a game you play?

Chorus:
Break through the mask of sin
It's an act, a sensless play you're in
Where betrayal leads to the fall
Be true, face all the sin
There's a part unknown
The truth untold
It might strike twice as hard

Deceives engaged to swollen heart
We will exterminate, then create
Damnation decides your place
Into a false direction and tears you apart

Come join the masquerade...
