

Triumphant Gleam

Trail of Tears

It all became history
Rose from dark so graceful
But nothing here is what it seems
It is out of control and disaster unfolds

Voice your ignorance
I am built to take it
Sweet your prejudice
I was born to make it
Spread your lies all across the world
I watch it all with a grin
Hatred heals in all it's forms
Fear us now as our forces storm

(Chorus:)

Inside this world of liberty
There's an existence
Beyond diversity exceed
Let me invite you
Invite you to this fragile world
'Cause I wanted you to see

Scream your own disgust
You are used to take it
Put forth another weak attempt and I'll be sure to break it Feel the blood from yesterday steal your remaining light
Wake up to the smell of wrath and might We're chasing further heights

(Chorus:)

There's an existence
Beyond diversity exceed
Let me invite you
Invite you to this fragile world
'Cause I wanted you to see
