

Brick by Brick

Train

The dust has finally settled down
The sun is shining on these pieces that are scattered all around
This house was everything we knew
It's where we kept our love and every single memory of me and you

Every letter, every note
Every dress you never wore under your coat thrown away

Brick by brick we can build it from the floor
If we hold onto each other we'll be better than before
And brick by brick we'll get back to yesterday
When I made your body shiver and when you took my breath away
You took my breath away

The sky has made it back to blue
Everything that's left is telling us the worst of it is through
Home has never felt so right, there's nothing in the way
There's nothing in between us, knowing where we're going is inside

Every letter that I wrote
Every dress you never wore under your coat thrown away

Brick by brick we can build it from the floor
If we hold on to each other we'll be better than before
And brick by brick we'll get back to yesterday
When I made your body shiver and when you took my breath away

All the pictures that we've taken and the songs that we have played
They have all kept track and followed back the love that we have made
Now they're spread out on the surface where we can try to congregate
It's not too late to believe that we can get it all again

Brick by brick we can build it from the floor
If we hold onto each other we'll be better than before
And brick by brick we'll get back to yesterday
When I made your body shiver and when you took my breath away
Took my breath away

Brick by brick we'll get back to yesterday
When I made your body shiver and when you took my breath away
You took my breath away
