Midnight On The Interstate

Trampled by Turtles

Late night
Midnight on the interstate
And I didn't feel so great
Until I saw the city

And I was younger And open like a child Man, it's been a while Since I felt that way

More and more I hesitate 'Cause I don't know

Happy Birthday You didn't want to celebrate And I was an hour late And you fell apart

Mostly sober
Sometimes I change my mind
And I don't have the time
No, we never do

Love and love and nothing else It's all I need
