Promises to Keep

Trans-Siberian Orchestra

Christmas time
On a cold December morning
All is calm
And the world is still asleep
Christmas lights
That have been caught without warning
Gently glitter on
Stars to wish upon
All the world is at peace

Christmas time and the year will soon be leaving Cloaked in time till it's just a memory Christmas stays if we don't forget its meaning Days go quickly by Years they multiply And we go searching for thee

And the dream is still alive
From that first December morning
And it always will survive
As long as we can see
That the dreams we find in life
Are the dreams we tend to seek
And Christmas has its promises to keep

Christmas time
And the moments just beginning
From last night
When we'd wished upon a star

If our kindness
This day is just pretending
If we pretend long enough
Never giving up
It just might be who we are

And so it's good that we remember Just as soon as we've discovered That the things we do in life Will always end up touching others

So from a fading neon star Somewhere shining in the night We find a father far away Now reflecting in its light
