

Forgive Forget Space (For Future Reference)

Transit

We always say, forgive, forget
Like that will teach us to live without regret (2x)

I ask advice, I don't take it.
Every gift I'm given, I shake until I break it.
(forgive, forget)
I'm distant, I'm unrealistic- just add it to the list.

And I'm not angry, I never was.
I never was.
It's just so hard to miss someone who's right in front of you all the time.
All the time.

I ask advice, I don't take it.
Every gift I'm given, I shake until I break it.
(forgive, forget)
I'm distant, I'm unrealistic- just add it to the list.

You're distant, you're idealistic.
You're everything hate in everybody else.

I ask advice, I don't take it.
Every gift I'm given, I shake until I break it.
(forgive forget)
I'm distant, I'm unrealistic- just add it to the list.

But I'm not angry, but I'm not angry.
I never was.
We're victim of ourselves.
We're victims of the crash.
So point the finger, point the finger.
And shake it till you break it.

You're distant, you're idealistic.
You're everything I hate in everybody else.
