

Hope This Finds You Well

Transit

You were walking down the dead end streets while I was chasing echoes.

Just trying to catch familiar voices.

But all I'm hearing is this:

"Your choices lead you down this road so if you're walking all alone"

Is that you, did you get lost, well I did too.

Did you get lost?

Maybe you got what you deserved.

Maybe you got what you deserved.

There's no hope in "live and learn"

Maybe you got what you deserved.

Maybe you got what you deserved.

There's no future

when every bridge is burned.

Is there any hope left for tomorrow or are we just buying time.

Looking to an empty sky

so we don't have to look into our lives.

Is that you?

Did you get lost, well I did too.

Did you get lost.

Maybe you got what you deserved,

Maybe you got what you deserved.

There's no hope in "live and learn"

Maybe you got what you deserved,

Maybe you got what you deserved,

There's no future when every bridge is burned.

and if you get the love you give the world

then you got what you deserved

and if I get the love you give the world

then I got what I deserved.
