

So Long, So Long

Transit

Can you tell me what you want to hear?
I won't say it
Let's check to see if we're still
On the same page
Blocking out the bad parts
Dodging all the long shots

So long, so long
To the silver days
So long, so long
To feeling second rate
Low like the lights on a dim lit street
The stars in your eyes
Have set me free

So long, so long
To the silver days
So long, so long
To feeling second rate
Hands wave goodbye
Swaying in the breeze
Our names up in lights
Above the marquee

Sweep me away
I need to feel like I'm in the right place
Take me, let's run away, run away, run away
I'll be your runaway, runaway, runaway

Sweep me away
I need to feel my hands on your face
Take me, let's run away, run away, run away
I'll be your runaway, runaway, runaway

Let's take a walk away from here
I can't stand it
Thoughts keep getting lost now
In the same place
Looking for a head start
Banking on a sure shot

So long, so long
To the silver days
So long, so long
To feeling second rate
Hands wave goodbye
Swaying in the breeze
Our names up in lights

Sweep me away
I need to feel like I'm in the right place
Take me, let's run away, run away, run away
I'll be your runaway, runaway, runaway

Sweep me away
I need to feel my hands on your face

Take me, let's run away, run away, run away
I'll be your runaway, runaway, runaway

Do you want me
Do you want out
Do you want me
Do you want out
Do you want me
Do you want out
Do you want me
Do you want out
Do you want me
Do you want out
Do you want out
Do you want out

So long, so long
To the silver days
So long, so long
To feeling second rate
Low like the lights on a dim lit street
The stars in your eyes
Have set me free

Sweep me away
I wanna feel like I'm in the right place
Take me, let's run away, run away, run away
I'll be your runaway, runaway, runaway

Sweep me away
I need to feel like I'm in the right place
Take me, let's run away, run away, run away
I'll be your runaway, runaway, runaway

Sweep me away
I need to feel my hands on your face
Take me, let's run away, run away, run away
I'll be your runaway, runaway, runaway.
