

Take What You Can

Transit

Screaming out the kitchen window
You were right
The world is so cold
So bundle up

But keep up the pace
Because everybody's watching
And you got just what you wanted
Didn't you?
Well, didn't you?

Keep up the pace
Because everybody's watching
And it's so hard to explain
How we can be so different
When everyone's the same

Screaming out the kitchen window
You were right
This world is so cold
So bundle up

Keep up the pace
Because everybody's watching
And you got just what you wanted
Didn't you?
Well, didn't you?

Keep up the pace
Everybody's watching
And it's so hard to explain
How we can be so different
When everyone's the same

When everything is cheap
And nothing's for free
How can we be so different
When everyone's the same
(Everyone's the same)

But you got just what you wanted
Didn't you?
Didn't you?

Yeah, you got just what you wanted
Everybody's watching you.
