

Back On My Knees Again

Transvision Vamp

There goes my money, there goes my lawyer
There goes mylover with another cheap whore
I don't mind
He lies and he cheats and he cheats and he lies
I don't mind
I'm back on my knees again, down on my knees again
I never know when I've had enough
The world's you clam, that's what they sold
But the pearl's just a rock in a burnt out shell
Now I don't even try to make that scene
I just scheme and I schemme and I scheme
And they lie and they cheat and they cheat and they lie
I don't mind
I'm back on my knees again, down on my knees again
I never know when I've had enough
So I play the game, do the deals, get the critics
At my heels; What else can I do? What you live in a zoo?
'Cept lie and cheat and cheat and lie
I don't mind
I'm back on my knees again, down on my knees again
I never know when I've had enough
