Tell That Girl To Shut Up

Transvision Vamp

Well you got that girl and she lives with you And she does just want you want her to And when I call you on the phone, she says you're not there But I know you're home-

You better tell that girl to shut up You better tell that girl I'm gonna beat her up You better tell that girl You better tell that girl You better tell that girl

Well we used to be the best of friends Now all that's gonna have to end But there's just one thing that I can't see How she's got got you hanging up on me

You better tell that girl to shut up You better tell that girl I'm gonna beat her up You better tell that girl You better tell that girl You better tell that girl

Well I guess you're like that all of the time But it takes more than that for me to loose my mind Don't you know that I don't care? Maybe if I hit her, maybe if I pulled her hair Oh oh hey yey yeah

Well, she likes to seem intellectuel And to be a musician she goes to school And the way she acts is so uncool I just can't stand her

You better tell that girl to shut up You better tell that girl I'm gonna beat her up You better tell that girl You better tell that girl You better tell that girl

Ooh you better tell,yeah you better tell, oh You better tell that girl You better tell that girl You better tell that girl

Girl, girl, girl, girl, girl, girl

You better tell that girl to shut up You better tell that girl I'm gonna beat her up You better tell that girl You better tell that girl You better tell that girl to shut up!
