

Two brothers, twin brothers
Two faced, one like the other
Destroy my perception of what I thought was real
I hate you both, motherfkers
I see you there, hiding in the shadows
I know your secrets that nobody knows
Gemini
Do what you got to do to keep myself alive
So I will always survive
MY WALK

Two brothers, twin brothers
Two faced, one like the other
Feel four walls fking closing in
Drawn from the light, I pay for your sin
And still you're there, hiding in the shadows
I know what's in your head, I know you want to see me dead
Do what you got to do to keep myself alive
So I will always survive
GEMINI

Never get to comfortable
What you have can be taken from you
People come and go
No room for friends with your enemies so close
Gemini!
One man grabs a devil's tail, holding on tight
One hand in the reaper's hand, guide me toward the light
