

Bring It

Trapt

I'm gonna hit you, right where it hurts
I'm gonna give you, everything that you deserve
If you need attention, something to say
Let's hear your confession, I am just too hard to break!

Bring it! bring it!
I'm still right here undefeated!
Say whatever you want, it really don't mean anything
Bring it! bring it!
If there's no fear let me see it!
There is nothing you got, that will ever get to me

Your words are reckless, delusional
Inside you're helpless, far from who you say you are
You try to push me, over the edge
I won't let you, pull me down to your level again!

Bring it! bring it!
I'm still right here undefeated!
Say whatever you want, it really don't mean anything
Bring it! bring it!
If there's no fear let me see it!
There is nothing you got, that will ever get to me.

Are you ready for this?
Cause I've been waiting my whole life
Are you ready for this?
I am gonna get mine
Are you ready for this?
I'm taking the hardline
Are you ready for this?
You're never gonna get out alive!

And now you're here, to stare me down
And now you're here, to stand your ground
I'll knock you down, I'll drag you out
No mercy, how do you like it now?

Bring it! bring it!
I'm still right here undefeated!
Say whatever you want, it really don't mean anything
Bring it! bring it!
If there's no fear let me see it!
There is nothing you got, that will ever get to me.
Bring it! Bring It!
(You will never get to me)
Bring it! Bring it!
(You will never get to me)
Bring it! Bring it!
(You will never get to me)
Bring it! Bring It! Bring It!
(You will never get to, you will never get to me)
