

Do we know how to get the message across?
We turn the lights off to find a way out
No time to get through to grasp what was lost
Don't turn the lights off and leave me in the dark

Hey, I'm pleading, my soul is bleeding
I don't want to be left alone, not when I'm right next to you
What are you thinking, it's so misleading
Is it not for me to know, I think it's just hard for you to show

We never spoke in the words that we want
We turn the lights off to find a way out
We've never chosen to keep what we've got
Don't turn the lights off and leave me in the dark

Hey, I'm pleading, my soul is bleeding
I don't want to be left alone, not when I'm right next to you,
What are you thinking, it's so misleading
Is it not for me to know, I think it's just hard for you to show

hard for you to show...
It's so hard for you to show...
Why is it hard for you to show?
hard for you to show...

I thought it would be nice to lie down and close my eyes
It never occurred to me that I am already asleep

Don't be the one to
Don't be the one to be let go
Don't be the one to
Don't be the one to be alone
Don't be the one to
Don't be the one to be let go
Don't be the one to be alone tonight

Hey, I'm pleading, my soul is bleeding
I don't want to be left alone, not when I'm right next to you,
What are you thinking, it's so misleading
I don't want to be left alone
I don't want to be left alone
I don't want to be left alone

And I don't want to be left alone
And I don't want to be left alone

No one wants to be left alone
