

Who's Going Home With You Tonight?

Trapt

Don't think we ever really got it right (got it right) Both you and I have always kept it bottled up inside Can you show me what it feels like to give yourself away
Why can't I hold onto you

There is no one around who picks me up when I'm down like you do
and when you can't hear a sound
will the silence drown you too

Who's going home with you tonight
was it real or am I part of your collection have you crossed the line
Who's going home with you tonight
Oh I feel like you're an open invitation
Is this how we say goodbye

Keeping secrets somewhere down below (down below)
I wish you had the heart to tell me that you sold your soul
So many things you couldn't let me know (let me know)
You had to run away
Why can't I hold onto you

There is no one around
who picks me up when I'm down like you do
and when you can't hear a sound
will the silence drown you too

Who's going home with you tonight
was it real or am I part of your collection
have you crossed the line
Who's going home with you tonight
Oh I feel like you're an open invitation

Who's going home with you tonight (goodbye)
Who's going home with you tonight
can you tell what it wrong and what is right
Who's going home with you tonight

Why can't I hold onto you
Why can't I hold onto you
Why can't I hold onto you

It's getting harder to sit here alone I've been waiting I've been waiting and you still ain't home
I have never ever felt so low I've been thinking I've been thinking Oh where did you go

Who's going home with you tonight
was it real or am I part of your collection
have you crossed the line
Who's going home with you tonight
Oh I feel like you're an open invitation

Who's going home with you tonight
can you tell what it wrong and what is right
Who's going home with you tonight
