

You're No Angel

Trapt

You paint yourself a picture
How perfect you appear
But I see you're only human
When the spotlight disappears

Lay your halo upon the alter
Clip your wings and admit to yourself

You're no angel so come back down
Down from your cloud
You're no angel so come back down
Down to the ground

You give into temptation
And all of you are saved
That part is only human
The part you'll never change

Lay your halo upon the alter
Clip your wings and admit it to yourself

You're no angel so come back down
Down from your cloud
You're no angel so come back down
Down to the ground

You're no angel
Go on and show your weakness
Everyone of us is blind

You're no angel so come back down
Down from your cloud
You're no angel so come back down
Down to the ground
