

A Deep Scar

Trauma

There's a deep scar inside me
I was hurt twenty one years ago

I know the time heals scar...
I know that one can forget...

I know the time heals scar
I know that one can forget many things
But I can't
I steel feel the same

Deep scar
Deep scar

Various cases are out of control
On callings for you with a desperate voice
I'm falling on my knees

The situation has just appeared
And there's confusion in it
Little pieces stick in my heart
The faith's hesitating

Moments of doubt are coming back to me

Deep scar
Deep scar

The bitterness is the bread
The ope died a long time ago
Where are those
Who took away from me?
