

Escape Into the Shadow

Trauma

I lost paradise of gods
I don't believe myself now
I escape into the shadow
The depth of despair surrounds me
I'll die in loneliness
Waiting for your sign
I build the wall I will hide my sorrow behind
Hopelessly I penetrate the forest of memories
From the past
This is your voice, These are your words I pronounce
When I scream sleeping in the cage
I'm your eyes, I'm a guide
Pray for help to
Escape into the shadow
I step on the new paths
Feeling my psychic pain
Slowly I'm falling into my last sleep
