

Human Race

Trauma

I live in
A coffin of humanity
Among thruths
Out of robes
Praying to many gods
But they didn't help us
Am I to believe
Reality speaks for itself
Me a plain man
See unstoppable evil
Unhalted madness
The greed took us to
Even I such a wicked creature know
Time has come for
Human race
Worms conceived out of lust
Fed by milk of unwanted them bitches
Despising morality multifaces
Think hoe to bequile
Speak how to trust
Do what they want
They live happy and I
Slowly exist
March to eternity
I hide my own self
Hide my real face behind the wall
